NO. 18

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Centre hosted Kentucky University to 5 Saturday.

An effort is being made to open a saloon at Burnside.

A colored dentist from Ohio has located in Danville.

Mrs. Lant Hall died at Somerset of consumption Saturday.

Susan Salter, colored, said to be 115 years old, died in Garrard Saturday.

Mrs. Nancy Moberley, widow of Dr. T. S. Moberley, died at Riehmond, aged 89.

A son of Sherman Faulkner, of Lu-lusk, cut his tongue nearly in two in a fall.

R. M. Waite has been appointed roadmaster of the Lexington division of the Cincinnati Southern via N. Bowen resigned.

The track line to Cumberland Falls will be run from Williamsburg this year, instead of from Cumberland Falls Station on the C. S.

R. A. Burnside, of Garrard, is one of Gov. Bradley's appointees to the American Fishing Society meeting at Niagara Falls, June 28.

A mad dog bit Echoes, son of Jimbo W. E. Russell, at Lebanon. A mad stone was applied a stuck for three hours and 10 minutes.

J. P. Hornaday has sold the Somerset Steam Laundry to P. E. Lunnell, of Butte, Mont., who has taken charge, says the P. H. Journal.

Dr. Robert Combs, charged with the killing of Charles Willoughby at Col. Hill, Madison, was acquitted, proving a clear case of self defense.

The sheriff of Madison went to Fort Sheridan, Ill., and brought back Gen. Bishop, a soldier, charged with betrayal. He is now very willing to marry the girl he wronged.

Hon. W. B. Smith, of Steubenville, has been sued by John Cunningham, of Bourbon, for $2,000, for failure to prosecute an appeal to the court of appeals in a case he had employed him in.

Geo. Jenkins escaped from the workhouse at Lancaster and broke into the house of Alvin Estes. Estes and his brother-in-law, Cornett, attempted to arrest him when he cut Cornett quite severely. He was finally overpowered and taken back to jail.

Ex-Sheriff Watson loses out in the court of appeals, which reverses the decision of the Pulaski circuit court. The suit involves about $3,000, money he had failed to collect and turn over, defended on the ground that he had no bond for the county levy and that the fiscal court had not made a valid levy.

A dispatch says that an elopement in Casey county has caused great excitement. A man named Wilson eloped with a 16 year old girl named Jeffries, who is a sister of Wilson's wife and came to his home to attend her while she is sick. The girl's father and a posse of citizens are in pursuit, and Wilson may be lynched if captured.

MCKINNEY.

Dr. Frank Grider and family are on a visit to relatives in Russell county. An infant of Fleming Curtis' died of some infantile trouble and was buried here last Tuesday.

The latest adventure in business here is the establishment of a new barber shop by Jimmie Cannon.

The McKinney and Hustonville H. B. lines crossed bats on the latter's ground Saturday afternoon and the score stood 17 to 10 in favor of McKinney. Battery for Hustonville, Caminitz and Lusk; McKinney, Hughes and Florence.

Mrs. Ollie Crow returned Sunday from a few days visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson at Somerset. Miss Helen Bibb is at home again after a several weeks visit to friends at Highbridge. Mack Williams is manipulating the keys in the telegraphic office here at night, but his stay will be brief as the opening of the office is not permanent.

A letter from Liner D. Goode, who is a brother-in-law of the writer and an American soldier in the Philippines, conveys the sad intelligence that in one of the severe battles with the insurgents he had an arm shot off and was at the date of the writing in a hospital awaiting recovery, when he will be returned home. His home is near Waynesburg, where his father, now past 74 years of age, still lives. Liner is young, unmarried, a fine specimen of manhood and is said to have made a good soldier.

The Sunday School convention held at New Salem church, near Mt. Salem, Saturday and Sunday was well attended and considered a very profitable meeting. The good people of that section never fail to entertain well when they undertake it. Notwithstanding the large crowd present Saturday the provisions were more than ample and when dinner was over there still remained enough good things on the ground to have satisfied the appetites of a hundred more hungry people. The services closed Sunday with a sermon on temperance by Rev. A. Mobley, followed by a collection for missions amounting to several dollars.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Col. Mike Hope and Miss Neillie Reid, of Pittsburgh, were married last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Curry scandalized Atlanta by getting a colored person to marry them.

Mr. J. Price Hudson and Miss Mary Green Arterburn, of Louisville, were married at Danville.

Henry Howard, of Fentress county, Tenn., was drowned while going after his marriage license.

An Indiana man three score years, ten and four married a maiden four years less than one score.

Jordan McGowan, 70, and Miss Annie Stevens, 16, were married in Wayne last week, says the Record.

Robert Howell, of Watertown, O., drank carbolic acid when his wife told him she no longer loved him.

William Reynolds, of Warren county, and Miss Nora Hays, of Hopkinsville, each 17 years old, were married last week.

Thomas Hansel and Miss Mamie, the pretty daughter of E. R. Miller, formerly of this county, were married at Mt. Vernon last week.

Miss Catherine Graham, said to be a cousin of Gov. Bradley, has brought suit against David Gilbert in Indiana for $25,000 for breach of promise.

Jack Haley and Sam Rose fought over a girl at Livingston, Tenn., and both are badly wounded. The former used a knife and the latter a pistol.

Mr. Henry T. Sloane, of New York, was Friday granted an absolute divorce from his wife, Jessie A. Sloane, who was a Vanderbilt. That night Mrs. Sloane was married to Mr. Perry Holmont.

At Sharon, Mass., Mrs. J. R. Rose shot her husband dead. She says she acted in self-defense, as her husband was choking her at the time. The pair had been married about a year and were middle aged.

Eugene Letch, the well known turman, and Miss Viola Wilkes, and W. C. Schrode, an actor, and Miss Lillian Wilkes, were married at the Grand Hotel, Cincinnati, Saturday night. The brides are sisters and from Louisville.

At Fairview, Ind., a society of old maidens has been organized and it is a line of $200 for any of the members to marry. The amount would seem very small, we predict, if any of the Hoosier girls who belong to it should receive an offer of marriage.

When Charles Newell went to the factory in Louisville, where his wife, from whom he had separated, is employed, and tried to cut her throat, a workman struck him on the head with a club, from the effects of which he died just after reaching the jail.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Werne and Mr. Andrew Graham Whitley was quietly solemnized last evening by the Rev. Carter Helm Jones at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Joseph Werne, 1728 Fourth Avenue. The house was beautifully decorated in evergreens and a profusion of white carnations. There were no attendants. Miss Werne wore a beautiful bridal gown of white silk, trimmed in lace and pearls, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Whitley will not go away until later in the season, and are at home at 1728 Fourth Avenue.—Louisville Post, 28th.

RECRUTS FOR THE PHILIPPINES.—The recruiting officer at Lexington has just received orders to enlist a number of white men for service in the regiments now in the Philippine Islands. These men will be sent direct to San Francisco as soon as they are enlisted in Lexington, and from there they will be sent direct to Manila. This will make a fine trip around the world for able bodied unmarried men who want to see the world. Such persons should apply at the Recruiting Office in Lexington at once in order to get in before it is too late.

MIDDLEBURG.

Born, to the wives of Rev. F. L. Creach and W. T. Wesley, respectively, girls, on the 27th inst.

Many democrats of Casey will doubtless take the opportunity to hear Senator Goebel at Stanford, Monday, May 8.

A coffin drummer was in Yosemite one day last week advertising his goods—the last thing on earth man would want.

Capt. Green preached at the Baptist church Sunday and Sunday night to good sized audiences. Rev. F. L. Creach preached at Russell Springs. The captain will move to the burg some time in May.

Allen & Wilkinson took a lot of cattle to Paris today to sell. They keep this end pretty well cleaned up in the cattle and hog line.

Spring cleaning is on with a vengeance and a number of our men are escaping it by fleeing to Casey under the pretense of fishing.

From the number of canvas-covered tobacco beds in the West End one would conclude that a big crop of the "weed" will be planted.

A large crowd will greet Senator Win. Goebel here Monday night next, while many will go to your town to hear him. This is a Goebel stronghold.

We are still sure of the electric railroad. It may not be built this year, but we'll wager dirt will be broken before Dewey day—May 1—rolls round again.

We need a first-class butcher shop.

A man who understands the business can do well here. Two hotels and a population of 800 certainly ought to support one.

Farmers are busy with corn planting and many do not take time to come to town except on Sunday. The acreage will be about the usual. Hardly a third of the crop is in.

Dr. R. A. Jones, who invariably does well when he practices dentistry here, ended his two weeks' stay Saturday. We are glad he is going to Stanford, where we hope and believe he will do well.

W. L. Evans, who is the boss gardener in this section, put in 20 bushels of onions and his patch is almost as large as a New York farm. He is also up to date as a fisherman, having caught a load in few hours Saturday.

Telephones are as thick here as fidlers are supposed to be in the Plutonian regions. Nearly every home has one. The charges are $1 per month and the renter is permitted to talk to any station on the Hustonville & Green line.

L. M. Reid, who, with his brother, Carroll, trains a stable of runners, is at home for a few days. After the Louisville races, where they will start a number of horses, they will go to New York with their string. Dr. W. L. Letcher and Mr. D. S. Rowland, of Danville, were guests at Mr. Samuel Held's. Mrs. R. J. Lyles, of Nashville, is here with relatives.

Kirksville, Mo., suffered a terrific tornado Thursday evening, just as the people were at supper. The entire east side of the city was wiped clean. Over 200 buildings, homes and stores were leveled. A heavy rain followed the cyclone, and the debris of wrecked buildings took fire in several places making a gruesome picture. Fifty persons are known to have been killed and between 400 and 500 injured. At Newton about 20 are dead. The total fatalities as a result of the tornado may reach 100. Other towns in the vicinity suffered more or less seriously.

On her acquittal Mrs. George told a newspaper reporter: "I want to say that my misfortunes and the bitter result should be a lesson to designing men. And it should also serve as a warning. Oh, if I could only go into every home and tell each wife, sister or daughter, and warn them against trusting any man with their virtue! I would say to them that no man, however fair he may seem, can be trusted with their dearest possession. I would warn them to be careful of their associates, to guard themselves against this temptation which dragged me down."

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as to the common cold, rheumatism, headaches, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Elder Bell's Pine Tar is the best medicine I ever took. It has cured me of almost every disease. It has done more for me than anything else I could think of. It has given me strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life."

There are 173 churches and 46 hospitals, asylums and homes. Its combined bank capital is $20,000,000. The 2,040 manufacturers have an invested capital of $50,000,000 and they employ 32,000 men. The death rate of the city in 1898 was only 13.59 to the 1,000. There are 54 public schools which cost $526,360.10 a year. There are besides 60 private schools.

Beer tabloids are about to be put on the market by a German firm. A small tablet dropped into a glass of water will turn it into beer as fresh as if just drawn, it is asserted.

The identical people who make a lion of a man will make a monkey of him if he doesn't look out.—Detroit Journal.

A cynic says that women are good for three things at least—to raise children, biscuits and hell.

HUSTONVILLE.

Wheat is looking fine.

Mrs. J. W. Hocker and Postmaster Cannitz are both convalescing.

A liberal use of paint is materially improving the appearance of our town.

Mrs. Joe Chandler, who lived on J. K. Haughman's farm, died last week of consumption, aged about 25. A husband survives.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - MAY 2, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

THE only redeeming features of the marriage of Perry Belmont to Mrs. H. T. Sloane at New York a few minutes after she had been granted a divorce are that the new groom made his wife convey back to Sloane the property valued at $50,000 that he gave her and that Belmont married the woman after leading her astray, as it is supposed he did, having been named co-respondent in the divorce proceedings. Belmont is president of a democratic club in New York City and recently came into some outside prominence by a correspondence he had with Bryan over an invitation to his $10 dinner. The woman is a Vanderbilt, or a distant relative, but her high social position can not cover her multitude of sins nor still the indignation of the latest disregard of conventional society rules.

GEN. HARDIN is sending out large and pretty pictures of himself with small ones of Bryan and Blackburn, on which are printed, "Together in Defeat," "Together in Victory." From the present reading of the political kaleidoscope, there is some doubt that the general will be of the trio under the latter head, but his election or defeat will cut no figure in the promised victory for the other two. No matter who is elected governor of Kentucky, Blackburn will be elected U. S. Senator and Gen. Hardin's election will not help or injure Bryan's chances for a renomination, which now seems certain.

The jury in the Sommers bribery case failed to agree after being out 48 hours and was discharged, standing, it is said, 8 to 4, the latter for acquittal. The testimony showed a nasty state of affairs all around and added to the original impression that it was planned as a trick to stampede the convention to McChord and that Sommers was played for a sucker. Judge Pryor and Senator Blackburn defended Sommers and the latter was particularly severe on Graves, "the knock-kneed, weasen-faced, political reformer."

JUDGE CANTRELL fined Heim Bruce $10 for contempt the other day, when the Louisville lawyer objected to the judge commenting on the evidence unfavorable to his client in giving the case to the jury. Mr. Bruce has published a card, which shows that the judge's action was extremely tyrannical. His long occupancy of the bench has apparently led Judge Cantrell to think that he is the whole thing and that lawyers, clients and common people are simply necessary evils.

THE Louisville Post is free white and 21 and Sunday celebrated the attaining of its majority in a mammoth edition in wonderful contrast with the four-page six column initial issue of May 1, 1878. Barring its comicalities and whimsicalities in politics the Post is a newspaper and here's hoping that Editor Knott may yet see the error of his way and close in with the forces of mercy before it is too late.

YENOWINE'S ILLUSTRATED KENTUCKIAN, the advent of which has been looked forward to with rosy expectations, is out and its appearance and contents are all that could be desired. It is an honor to the State and to the South and if the excellence of the initial number is maintained it will doubtless receive the large patronage it deserves. Get a copy. It is only 10c.

MRS. GEORGE, having been acquitted of the murder of the man who had grievously wronged her, will, it is said, go on the stage, but if, as came out in proof that she has to use table linen to perfect her form, she will never be much of a drawing card for the bald heads.

CAPT. STONE seems to make a specialty of lambasting editors. His last effort in that direction was at Editor Sommers when he spoke in Elizabeth Saturday. He accused him of falsifying and of publishing an untruth.

YESTERDAY was the first anniversary of Dewey's great victory in wiping out Montijo's fleet at Manila. It was a great and glorious achievement, but it has wrought innumerable woes to this country.

The indications are that the backbone of the Filipino hostilities is broken, but Aguilalbo and his followers will have to be watched long after they will pretend to have given up the gun.

ALAS, how have the mighty fallen. Ex-Senator Peffer, who was washed into the U. S. Senate on the populist wave in Kansas, is now editing a country weekly at $10 a month.

THE Louisville Dispatch's second anniversary number is a hummer. It consists of 40 pages with an illuminated and highly artistic cover, and is a most creditable edition.

A dollar banquet at Chicago is to be given with Bryan and Mayor Harrison the guests of honor.

JUDGE BOREING told the Cincinnati Enquirer that he has proved White guilty of every charge of corruption that White made against him and by White's own witnesses and intimated that but for the much abused law that gives a contestant pay for making a contest, there would have been none made by White. Right you are Mr. Boreing, and but for that "much abused law" Davison would never have thought of contesting Mr. Gilhert's seat. Make your term in Congress memorable and praise-worthy by securing the repeal of the "much abused law," and we will forgive your sin of being so mean a republican.

THE Blue Grass Clipper, of Midway, now published by Cooper & Bailey, is 24 years old and in reviewing its existence, a list of the numerous editors who have straddled its tripod is given in the last issue. Without counting, we should say there are at least 24 of them and the names show many of whom any paper would be proud. The Clipper has always been a good paper and is improving with age like the leading product of the county it is published in.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Mrs. Jane Rhea, mother of the Congressman, died at Russellville yesterday.

Gov. Bradley and his staff of 50 colonels are enroute to Chickamauga to attend the dedication of the Kentucky monument tomorrow.

R. E. Puryear will be nominated for Senator in the Lebanon district. His only opponent, J. W. Kerr, withdrew when he saw his big lead.

Mark Hanna says that "nothing short of a great calamity can prevent the renomination of McKinley and Hobart." But wot in itself be calamity enough to avert it?

It is believed that ex-President Grover Cleveland will be called to the new chair of general politicos, to be created at Princeton University by reason of the recent anonymous endowment of $100,000.

The packed court of inquiry on Gen. Miles' beef charges holds that the beef was good when it left the contractor's hands, but canned roast beef is condemned as a ration, and former Commissary Gen. Eagan is severely censured for buying it. Gen. Miles is criticized for not reporting promptly on the bad beef, but the court does think further proceedings necessary.

The civil service commissioners report shows the total number of persons examined during the year was 45,712, of whom 30,600 passed. This was a decrease of 4,859 in the number examined and a decrease of 5,985 in the number who did not pass, as compared with the previous year. It also takes occasion to commend the system and to prove its value by increased efficiency of the service under it.

The Cincinnati Enquirer takes little stock in Reed's statement that he is going to practice law. It says that Mr. Reed was less tyrannical last winter than ever before. He was even amiable. He got along so smoothly with both sides of the House that the parliamentary millennium was thought to be at hand. There was a practically unanimous vote of thanks to him a few minutes before the final adjournment, the resolution being offered in a more or less gushing speech by Hallie, of Texas.

This was all presidential tactics, fellow citizens. Don't be deceived with this $50,000 a-year story.

CHEESE FACTORY.—Arnold Von Arx, who moved here from Alliance, O., will begin today the operation of a cheese factory at Ottenheim. He has engaged milk from 90 cows and will average about 125 pounds of cheese per day.

A GENTLEMAN who lives on Dix river tells us that hardly a night passes but what there are gangs of soldiers at work in that stream. This is against the law and our informant says he is going to speak if a stop is not put to it.

NEW STORE HOUSE.—Mr. John F. Cash, of the firm of Cash & McClure, the Turnerville merchants, contracted with A. C. Sims Saturday for a $1,000 store-room to be built corner Hustonville and McKinney pikes at Turnerville.

JUDGE HAILEY had 30 cases in his quarterly court yesterday, 29 of which were disposed of in less than 10 minutes, the only contested one, the Knoxville Nursery Co., vs. O. J. Newland for a small amount, being continued till today.

NOT SMALL POX.—Zan Murphy and George Carter have both had a break-out at Rowland, but Col. W. Huff Huddarar says it is not small pox. He admits though that they had a chance to catch the disease called small pox at Lebanon Junction.

THE Q. C. used the L. & N. track over 100 miles for its through trains a little over a week and they were handled expeditiously and without accident. A freight wreck near Waynesburg caused the C. S. to run this way again Saturday night, but only for two trains.

DISASTROUS FIRE.—Hudson & Co.'s large warehouse in Garrard, containing 200,000 pounds of hemp, 500 barrels of corn and much valuable machinery, burned with all its contents. The origin of the fire is unknown. The insurance is $10,000, which will not cover the loss.

THE lumber in the fence that the turnpike company put up along the railroad yards at Rowland at a cost of $500, sold Saturday for about $45. The lumber brought 25 to 30c per 100 feet and the fence posts 6 to 10c each. Messrs. S. H. Baughman, S. J. Embry, W. H. Huddarar and W. B. Land were the principal purchasers.

WANT BAIT.—Tom and Dee Baker, who are in jail here for safekeeping, under indictment in Clay county for killing White and Howard, and Jim Baker also indicted for the murder of Howard, a son of the first named, have sued out writs of habeas corpus to be tried before Judge Sauley tomorrow to see if they are entitled to bail.

EDIFIED BY NOT PERUSING.—"Did you read the raking down Bro. Grinstead gave you recently in the INTERIOR JOURNAL?" was asked of Rev. Ben Hebn. "No, I am like the little boy who in writing a composition on the subject of 'I'm', 'I'm,' he said, 'have saved many a man's life—because did not swallow them.' I find much more edification in some people's writings by not reading them." And the great sanctificationist laughed heartily at his little sally.

42 TO 6.—Seorer Shelton M. Saufley furnishes the following: The initial game of the base ball season in Stanford was played at the public school grounds Saturday between the boys of Prof. Craig's academy and those of Hobson Academy, Danville. The game was an entirely one-sided affair and was therefore not as interesting as it would otherwise have been. At the end of the 7th inning the score stood 42 to 6 in favor of Stanford and the Danville boys concluding they had enough, left. The principal features of the game were the errors of the "Hobsonites", the excellent pitching of Harry Higgins and the home runs of Ed Hale, George Florence and Sam Embry for Stanford and Mustaine for Danville. The batteries were, for Stanford, Higgins and Florence; for Danville, Hopkinson, Mustaine and Hoggott. The academy boys have received a challenge from the freshman team of Centre College, and it is probable they will go there to play before long.

IF you have had trouble in getting your watch repaired satisfactorily try Dalton.

FARM FOR SALE.—I will offer about 200 acres of my farm at auction on liberal terms before the court-house door in Stanford county court day, May 8, 1899, at 11 A. M. Parties wanting to see the land can call on me at home. A. M. Feland.

A DECIDED improvement will be made on the public school building, Supt. Singleton tells us. An ell will be built at a cost of about $500 and when completed there will be three splendid rooms 25x30. It will be necessary to levy a tax of about 5c on the $100, but the building will be much more convenient and comfortable.

BIRD. BARNES.—Mrs. Welch has a letter from Rev. Geo. O. Barnes which says he had to leave the church he has been using and is now holding forth in his private apartments which can seat an audience of 60 by opening the folding doors. Since reaching Washington City he has held 100 meetings and says he has preached with more of the spirit of God and Miss Marie has sung the old songs sweeter than ever before though much the larger number of the services have been held to less than a dozen persons.

HURT IN A RUNAWAY.—Miss Alice Beazley, her little nephew, Cecil Johnson, and Negro driver, Ed Salter, were all painfully hurt in a runaway Saturday morning. The horse reared at a pile of cinders in front of Dr. L. H. Cook's and ran at full speed till the buggy wheel struck the hitching post in front of H. C. Rupley's, where they were all thrown out. Miss Beazley and the Negro were unconscious when picked up, but were soon themselves again. Her face is badly bruised, nose cut and a bad cut in her tongue. Her nephew escaped with a slight cut on the upper lip, while Salter is badly bruised about the head. The harness broke when the post was struck and but little damage was done to the buggy.

JAMES T. ROSE.

JAMES T. Rose was born near Harrodsburg, the county seat of Mercer county, Kentucky, Jan. 30, 1848. He became a Christian when he was about 17 years old, uniting with the church of Christ at Berea, near the old home-stead, where his aged and venerable father still resides. He was married Oct. 5, 1865, to Miss Sarah Ellen Gregor, who, together with the six children born to their union, survive him. For a number of years he was a sufferer from Bright's disease, and after a sudden, violent illness, lasting only a few hours, quietly fell asleep in the early morning hours of Thursday, April 20th, at his home near Hustonville, Lincoln county, Ky. The funeral services were held the following morning at the Christian church, in Hustonville, after which the body was laid to rest in the burial ground near that village. Mr. Rose had been engaged in farming in Lincoln county for about 15 years, and the very large attendance at the funeral services attested the high esteem in which he was held by the entire community. As a friend remarked on the occasion, "He was a man in whom everybody had perfect confidence." In everything, "His word was as good as his bond." He was a faithful husband, a devoted father, an upright, honorable citizen, a steadfast, generous friend, an earnest, consistent Christian. Honored with the Christian church at Hustonville, when he removed to the community to live, and for the last few years of his life served as a deacon of the congregation. He was a most cheerful, prompt and generous giver at all times to the work of the church, and took a deep interest in its welfare. He was rewarded, in part, by having all his children, who are old enough, follow him into the sacred fold. He was a genuine, Christian gentleman, a man who "acted justly, loved mercy and walked humbly before God." His rests from his labors, and his works follow him.

NEEDS NO BOOSTING.

MR. MILLER THINKS OF HIMSELF.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal)

In Friday's issue of the I. J. special and painstaking mention seems to be made of the "complimentary letters the Hon. M. F. North is receiving from members of the last Legislature."

Perhaps it may not appear egotistic in the democrats of Lincoln to think they may know Mr. North sufficiently well without this formal introduction and may be led to inquire why it is necessary just at this particular time for him to need so much bragging from abroad.

I do not expect to be appreciated anywhere for "superior wisdom." I have long since learned how small any one is—a good and important lesson for any man to learn, but am glad my modest and moderate capacity needs no special endorsement away from home.

Allow me to again appeal to the friends and companions of a long life time to confer upon me this honor which I shall prize as the crown of my old age. I have every assurance from your sons that they will unite with you in doing so.

My life has been spent among you. My democracy will bear the strictest scrutiny. I was raised by a pioneer democrat. My faith has never wavered. Let me say in conclusion, I seek no "red hot race" for the nomination in June or the election in November. Very resp't. J. H. MILLER.

Madame Marcelline Sembrich, who is to sing in two concerts of the Louisville May Music Festival, May 8-10, is now confessedly the greatest operatic singer on the stage, with the possible exception of Calve. She was the undisputed star of the New York grand opera season last winter and spring, and yet the De Reszke brothers were in the east. Her engagement has been made at very great expense. Her triumphs on this tour rival those of Jenny Lind. A single fare for the round-trip to Louisville and return has been secured on all railroads during the festival. The opportunity to visit Louisville will be the best of the year, and the greatest singers in America will appear in the festival.
